

The Lakelands Master Gardeners Present:

Gardening In Tune With Nature

By Marian St. Clair

*It's a great time to plan your garden!
Join us as Marian St. Clair shares information on using native plants in your landscape.*

Marian St. Clair is a Master Gardener and Master Naturalist who nurtures an earth-friendly landscape in Greenville, South Carolina. She worked as a freelance writer and photographer for the Greenville News for 17 years, contributing both feature articles and weekly columns until August 2018, and leads tours to gardens across the United States and Europe. As a gardening expert, Marian has been guest of Martha Stewart Radio and local media, and a presenter at symposia. In 2008, she was honored with a Gold Award by the Garden Writers Association.

Thursday, January 9th @ 11:00 a.m.
at Harris Baptist Church, 300 Center St., Greenwood
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC